What Care Homes & Families Say

Review No. 1 ● Hallgarth Care Home (DURHAM)

Having celebrated St Patrick's Day in style, Hallgarth Care Home thought it was only right to do the same for St George, even though England's patron saint is famously Turkish! Red and white were the order of the day, with flags flying high alongside hand-drawn pictures of St George in full armour about to do battle with the dragon - created by the ever-imaginative Hallgarth Art Club!

Entertainer John Royce was the star of the show, arriving in full regalia and despite the heat remaining in costume for the full afternoon. His songs took everyone on a wonderful nostalgic journey through the 1950's and 60s, including tunes from Cliff Richard, Neil Diamond and Roy Orbison and he even worked in topical number with 'Puff the Magic Dragon.'

Here is resident Elizabeth pictured with 'St George'. She took such a shine to the dragon hat that she wore it with pride all afternoon! A lovely day - and thank you to John Royce for his excespirit thorough out his visit - it really was great fun.

5-STAR CARE-HOME FEEDBACK

John recently performed at a Jubilee Party in the care home that my Dad lives. It was amazing to see all of the residents singing and dancing along to John. My Dad suffers from Dementia but loves his music and it's the first time in a long time, that my sister and I have seen him so happy. It was actually my Dad's 78th birthday on the day John performed and my Dad thought the entertainment was especially for him. John didn't disappoint, he sang happy birthday to my Dad and it made his birthday. All of the residents, their families and staff had a fantastic afternoon being entertained by John, just amazing!"

John put an amazing show on for a residents 100th birthday party and worked his way through the decades, all the residents and staff thoroughly enjoyed themselves and the families have also commented on how good John was. We will definitely be booking John again. Laura G. 17/4/23
